

9-11 Evil, A Book Review September 7, 2006

I have been reading 9-11 EVIL: Israel's Central Role in the September 11, 2001 Terrorists Attacks by Victor Thorn. As I am reading the way this writer exposes the Zionist communist Jewish plot to bomb the Twin Towers and the Pentagon, I feel like I am reading things that I have been saying for over forty years. I am not taking anything away from this book, because it is great reading and we recommend that every person in America read this book. What Mr. Thorn is saying could be said about many other events that the Zionist Jews have been responsible for in the last 250 years in this country. The ink was barely dry on the Constitution when they began to unravel what good men and women died for.

The names change over the years, but ALL of this country's problems – since the Revolutionary War – have been caused by the Zionist Jews as they have, for hundreds of years, been trying to control the entire world. The destruction of the Twin Towers and Pentagon were just the latest in a long string of disasters that have befallen this country. The Zionists have grabbed complete control of our government and placed their puppets in positions of power all the way to the White House. These evil bastards sit back in the shadows and pull the strings of their puppets and allow them to take all the heat. The Zionist Jews have absolute control of the major media and rush in to protect one of their puppets when he gets into trouble. If the case against the puppet is hopeless, they will throw the puppet to the wolves and protect themselves from any exposure.

Victor Thorn has done a great job of putting all the facts together, and we will now quote a portion of the book that you will find very interesting. Victor is saying that these evil conspirators are causing all our problems:

“Remember, these individuals don't exist in a vacuum, and they're not above leaving a paper trail. (How do you think we know so much about them?) We also need to examine the inner workings of the Alfred P. Murrah Federal Building bombing on April 19, 1995. Here we're allowed an insight into the precursor, or dry run for 9-11 where the perpetrators' modus operandi was nearly identical, with outside agencies such as the ADL and Southern Poverty Law Center working in unison with the CIA, BATF, and FBI. (Remember: there were no BATF or FBI children in the child care center that day. What does that tell you? ED).

“The faces and names changed over a decade, but unfortunately, 9-11 was ratcheted many levels higher, for the new implements consisted of defense contractors, the NSA's Puzzle Palace, deep-cover Mossad operatives (Israeli Secret Service), and a slew of techno-demolition-computer wizards. Amazingly, they botched the job even worse than they did OKC and the JFK assassination.

“With this foundation in mind, let's peer behind-the-scenes at a conversation that must have taken place somewhere in time, possibly in the backroom of a 1990's Bilderberg meeting where shadowy luminaries met in private:

Mr. A.: (eyes bulging): We need to push our agenda forward to reach the next level of control.

Mr. B.: What are you suggesting, sir?

Mr. A.: (leaning forward): I'm recommending a scenario where we combine Operation Northwoods with the OKC Bombing.

Mr. B.: Where would this event take place?

Mr. A.: Events ... plural ... multiple events in New York City and Washington DC. This time we're targeting the USA in a big way.

Mr. B.: What specifically do you envision?

Mr. A.: (excitedly): This event has to be larger than life, like something straight out of Hollywood. What we want is a new Pearl Harbor that will traumatize everyday Americans to such an extent that they'll allow us to do anything, including the removal of their rights, wars started on nothing but lies, and placing them in debt beyond their wildest dreams.

Mr. B.: When will this chaos take place?

Mr. A.: The date has to be easily remembered, and very symbolic. We're thinking something like 9-11. Not only is this number indicative of an emergency (9-11), but when we strike the WTC towers in Manhattan we'll bring even more numerology into the equation. (This is very good, ED).

Mr. A.: The Twin Towers, our modern-day equivalent of Babel, built by Nimrod and the first freemasons. Can't you see? The Twin Towers of Babel, each phallic structure represents the number "1." Side-by-side they equal 11, as in 9-11. Plus, these towers were erected in New York City; the New Babylon ... land of many tongues, while the number 9 signifies completeness, which is what this operation is meant to initiate – a final push for unity in our New World Order. All placed together, the occult ramifications are undeniable – emergency, chaos, secret societies, wholeness, and a covert symbolism that strikes at the heart of our Hegelian Dialectic. And from all the mayhem which will naturally ensue, guess who'll be there to bring order? Us! Ordo Ab Chao.

"It's hard to imagine that such a conversation actually took place, but upon further consideration, it must have! After all, 9-11 didn't just "happen" by accident. It didn't simply pop into thin air without any impetus. But let's take it a step further."

Mr. B.: What will these attacks entail?

Mr. A.: (focused): We're finally going to implement Operation Northwoods where we fly airplanes into the World Trade Center towers, Pentagon, and the White House or Capitol Building. Then we'll blame it on "Muslim terrorists" and say they struck at the heart and soul of America – their financial, military, and political centers.

Mr. B.: (hesitantly): Sir, I'm completely behind your plan, but what about our peripheral members who aren't completely up to speed? There will be thousands, if not tens of thousands, of deaths. How will we explain?

Mr. A.: (enraged): DAMNIT! (pounding his fist on the table) If the value of human life matters to any of our members, then they don't belong in our organization. One of our operatives – Timothy McVeigh – summed it up best after the OKC bombing. He said the casualties were nothing more than “collateral damage.”

Mr. B.: I understand, but...

Mr. A.: (a maniacal look in his eyes): 168 people were killed, many of them children. We didn't care. Likewise, we allowed 2,403 men to die at Pearl Harbor when FDR turned a blind-eye to the Japanese tora toras. Hell, we still slaughter a million babies a year via abortion, and that's just in the U.S. alone. Then there was WW I & II ... tens of millions of dead bodies strewn across Europe, Russia, and the Orient; plus the atomic bombs over Hiroshima and Nagasaki. Vietnam was another bloodbath, with 58,000 dead U.S. soldiers, and hundreds of thousands of little slaughtered yellow people. Don't they get it? We don't give a damn about the dead, and we don't give a damn about the living. The only ones we care about are us!

Mr. B.: (reeling backwards): Sir, we've never undertaken anything of this magnitude before.

Mr. A.: You don't even know the whole story.

Mr. B.: I don't?

Mr. A.: (shouting): No. After we careen those planes into the towers, any idiot with an ounce of sense will know that their impact and the resulting jet fuel fires couldn't bring them down, so we'll need to help them along a little bit.

Mr. B.: Help them along?

Mr. A.: Sure. Those towers are going to be loaded to the gills with enough explosives to ... (momentary pause) ... and we're going to need an energy source in the sub-basements that is as powerful as the Sun ... or the blast over Hiroshima.

Mr. B.: What are you saying?

Mr. A.: (rising to his feet): After the planes strike each tower – complete with fiery pyrotechnics – we'll bring those buildings to their knees via a controlled demolition. People will be crushed like pancakes, they'll die from smoke inhalation, burns, and some will even jump to their deaths and splatter on the streets. Firefighters and police officers will die, as will those in search & rescue. It'll be horrific, but the more gruesome it is, the greater it'll lend itself to furthering our agenda. There's an old motto in TV news: if it bleeds it leads. We want 9-11 to be bloody, gory, with body bags, rivers of tears, and a general state of chaos and pandemonium. That should send a message that we mean business.

The Zionist communist Jew is the most evil man that has ever lived. We did an article called How to Murder Your Enemy for Lewis News. In this article we explain how the evil Zionist Jews deliberately murder people using our food supply and the major drug companies. They poison our food supply and our water supply. They know what they are doing and do so just to kill as many people as they can.

Victor Thorn is one of the very few men who knows the truth and is willing to tell us who the enemy is. Victor says this on page 15 of his blockbuster book: “We’re at war, yet the only ones who realize it are the Talmudic plutocrats who have no compunction whatsoever about taking human lives. And who is the war between? Them and us! Why do you think it’s always us being manipulated to kill our own – Christians vs. Muslims, Americans vs. Russians, and blacks vs. whites etc. all the way back through history?”

These men and women are not human; they kill just for the pure pleasure of killing. They are far worse than animals; an animal only kills to eat or to keep from being eaten, while these evil bastards kill for pleasure. They kill because they hate every one that is not a Zionist Jew. They had just as soon kill a Jew that is not a Zionist as they would anyone else. They feel that they are the only people that are fit to live. Go here: The Truth Hurts to see how they hoped to start a war between the Soviet Union and NATO forces; you will see this in their own words, not ours. Having failed there, they are now working to start a world war between the Arab Muslims and the Christian nations. They expect to be able to move in and rule the world after the war is over.

Mr. Thorn continues on page 15: “To understand the criminally insane, one must begin thinking (or at least viewing the world) like they do. If you’re not willing to make that leap, you’ll never comprehend the machinations surrounding you.

“The first elemental truth is as follows: those who were behind all the atrocities listed a few pages earlier are the enemies of mankind. The reason why is simple: these men and women are outside us ... modified ... imprinted with an entirely different set of values and lack of morals (all via their twisted DNA). Their nature – so alien to ours – is undoubtedly a source of power; but in the same breath also their greatest fear. Imagine: if their crimes against humanity were exposed for all of humanity to see, the masses (hopefully) would finally swell with such fervor that we’d rip those bastards to bloody pieces.”
